SOCIAL NOTES

Italian Consul Schaefer gave a beautiful stag dinner at his residence, "Rockland," Friday evening. The table massed with large clusters of the red exotia, covered with the Italian colors with green and white ribbons forming graceful bands and rosettes between the delicate ferns. Speeches, toasts and brilliant conversation, as well as a delicious menu, made the evening pass very pleasantly. Mr. Schaefer always appears to advantage when acting as host, for he has the social instinct and his guests are always completely at ease. The guests were Captain Cusani-Vicenti, Commander Brandia, Lieutenant Cutolo, Lieutenant Barnardi, Lieutenant Galdini, Paymaster Dionisi, all of the Italian cruiser Puglia, Captain Rees, Chief Justice Hartwell, Secretary Mott-Smith, Consul General Canavaro, Consul Mennat, Consul Forster, A. S. Cleghorn, S. M. Damon, A. Marques, F. A. Schaefer.

One of the greatest treats this season was the highly recital one Tuesday evening at Bishop Hall. That music lovers thoroughly appreciated the high ability of Mr. Buchly, Mrs. Mackall and Mrs. Tenny Peck was shown by the vast audience which greeted the raising of the curtain. From beginning to end the concert was a brilliant success. One can only hope to have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Buchly again in the near future. Mr. Buchly reminds one, both in his brilliancy and fearlessness of the great Belgian violinist. Mrs. Tenny Peck made a beautiful picture as she sat at the piano, her pink satin toilette bringing out her delicate coloring to perfection. The bouquet of la France roses which were laid on the piano gave the finishing touch. Mrs. Mackall never sang to better advantage. Everybody was loud in her praise, and she looked most attractive in a blue chiffon frock.

Miss Louise Maxwell, daughter of Mrs. Barker, who married Admiral Barker for her second husband, and will be remembered as the Mrs. Maxwell who visited the B. F. Dillinghams some years ago, is to be married to Mr. Corning of Albany. Mr. Corning comes from a most prominent family in New York.

Judge Kingsbury's birthday on Thursday was honored by many flowers and gifts being sent to his apartment. The Judge is a great favorite and always has a genial word for his friends. Many happy returns of the day.

Mr. William Pfotenbauer sailed for Germany in the Alameda after being much feted by his many friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth Church will take up her residence at the Monna Hotel.

Dr. F. H. Humphris, who has been at the Volcano, has returned.

A crown of glory—is a beautiful head of hair. An Australian lady now in London writes under date Jan. 28, 1907:

"Ayer's Hair Vigor has done my hair a world of good. It is now thick, glossy, and soft, and when plaited is 55 inches long. Ayer's Hair Vigor ought to be used by every woman who takes pride in her appearance."

You also may have such a crown of glory if you will follow the example of this lady and use

Ayer's Hair Vigor
It will remove all dandruff and make your hair rich and abundant.

Well Cooked Meat
After all there is nothing more satisfying or healthful than a juicy rib roast of graded beef cooked on a gas stove. No fuel will get the meat to the exact point of perfection. Meat cooked on anything but gas will not taste as well or carve as well. Do you cook with gas?
